N.J. Woman Freed by Reds

NEW YORK, June 24 (UPI) Helen Kozeradsky, a New Jersey woman who spent 38 months in a Communist Czechoslovakia prison accused of spying for the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), burst into tears tonight as she was reunited with her husband and three children.

She hugged her 14-year-old daughter, Helen, and exclaimed: "You've grown up."

The heavyset, darkhaired 52-year-old woman was met at the airport by her husband, John, a machine operator in Passaic, N. J., their two sons and daughter.

"I feel very good," Mrs. Kozeradsky said. "I'm very happy." She declined to discuss her experience in the Communist prison.
